A very unusual George IV Silver Gilt Caddy Spoon made in London in 1823 by William Eley II.

Sold

REF: 375410

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Caddy spoon is a curious example, as it is silver gilt on the front and silver coloured on the back. This unusual piece is of a large size and has a fluted shell bowl. The fiddle pattern handle is beautifully chased with pluming scrolls, grapes and shell details. It is of the finest quality and fully marked on the reverse.Length: 4.45 inches, 11.13 cm.Width of the bowl: 1.6 inches, 4 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777