

INVERNESS. A rare Drinking Quaich made in Inverness circa 1800 by Charles Jamieson.

Sold

REF: 374908

Description

The Quaich is of circular form, with two side lugs and stands on a silver ring foot. One of the lugs is engraved with the contemporary initials PM. The foot is very well marked with CJ for Charles Jamieson, INV for Inverness and the letter "J", as occasionally some of the letters of the alphabet were used as private date letters. This piece is in exceptional condition and has a very good colour. Height: 1 inch, 2.5 cm. Length, across the lugs, 4.6 inches, 11.5 cm.
