William Beckford Interest. A very rare George III Spoon made in London in 1798 by William Eley & William Fearn

Sold

REF: 375187

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

This very unusual spoon is modelled in the rare Hanoverian, Fiddle & Thread Pattern, which is double struck. The spoon is of an exceptional gauge and weight and is engraved on the reverse with a contemporary Armorial surrounded by a cartouche of drapery mantling. The Arms are those of William Thomas Beckford, 1760-1844. This piece is of a very unusual design and is in excellent condition. Length: 8.5 inches, 21.25 cm

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777