

William Beckford Interest. A very rare George III Spoon made in London in 1798 by William Eley & William Fearn

Sold

REF: 375187

Description

This very unusual spoon is modelled in the rare Hanoverian, Fiddle & Thread Pattern, which is double struck. The spoon is of an exceptional gauge and weight and is engraved on the reverse with a contemporary Armorial surrounded by a cartouche of drapery mantling. The Arms are those of William Thomas Beckford, 1760-1844. This piece is of a very unusual design and is in excellent condition. Length: 8.5 inches, 21.25 cm