

A pair of William IV Pepper Casters made in Edinburgh in 1831 by William Cunningham.

Sold

REF: 175895

Description

The Peppers stand on a stepped circular pedestal foot. The vase shaped main bodies rise to an incuse shaped neck and domed pull off covers which terminate in a ball finial. Both covers are pierced with scrolls and arrow heads.

Height: 3.75 inches.

Diameter of the foot: 1.5 inches.