

An unusual Pickle Fork made in London in 1852 by R. Wallis.

Sold

REF: 199888

Description

The Fork is of an unusual long, slender form and is modelled in the fiddle pattern. The reverse of the stem is engraved with a set of contemporary script initials. Very well marked.

Length: 8.45 inches.