

An unusual Tea strainer made in London in 1849 by Rawlings & Summers.

Sold

REF: 375086

Description

The Tea Strainer has a circular bowl with reeded border, pierced with roundels to simulate a flower head. This piece has two heart shaped side handles and is in excellent condition. The strainer displays a full set of marks on the side of the main body.Length: 4.1 inches, 10.25 cm.Diameter of the bowl: 2.5 inches, 6.25 cm.Weight: 2oz.