A rare George III "Prince of Wales Feathers" Caddy Spoon made in London in 1792 by George Wintle.

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 375313

Description

The Caddy Spoon has a scallop shell bowl, and the handle is most unusually decorated with a bright cut shield shaped cartouche containing a set of contemporary script initials below the Prince of Wales Feathers, as used by the heir to the throne, at this date being Prince George Augustus Frederick, later King George IV. The Spoon is very well marked on the reverse and is in excellent crisp condition. George Wintle had workshops in Glasshouse Yard, Aldersgate Street, when this piece was made. His mark has been seen on Caddy Spoons over the years.Length: 2.9 inches, 7.25 cm.Width of the bowl: 1.5 inches, 3.75 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777