A very fine George III Caddy Spoon made in Birmingham in 1805 by Cocks & Bettridge.

£550

REF: 374483

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

This very fine Caddy Spoon is modelled as a coal scoop, with finely gilded bowl, decorated with a bright cut engraved band. The curved handle is also engraved with bright cut designs and a tear drop shaped prick dot cartouche containing a contemporary Crest depicting a bull's head issuing from a Ducal coronet. The spoon is in excellent condition and is very well marked on the reverse. Cocks & Bettridge made some of the finest scoop caddy spoons during this period.

Length: 2.25 inches, 5.63 cm.
Diameter of the bowl: 0.9 inches, 2.25 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777