

A George II Mote Spoon made most probably in London circa 1750

Sold

REF: 135260

Description

The Mote spoon is of typical form, however this example is decorated on the reverse of the bowl with a shell motif. The bowl is beautifully pierced with scrolls and crosses.

Length: 5.5 inches.