

William & Mary. An extremely rare Sucket Fork made in London circa 1690 by Jean Harache.

Sold

REF: 239010

Description

This extremely rare piece is beautifully decorated on the front and reverse of the stem with scratch engraved foliate designs and triangular motifs. The rat tail spoon end is engraved on the reverse with a foliate design and the contemporary initials E F. This piece is in excellent condition and is well marked on the stem with the makers mark of Jean Harache.

Length: 5.45 inches, 13.63cm.