Description

Length: 4.75 inches.
