

A rare set of Cased Knives, with Pique handles, made circa 1830, most probably in London

Sold

REF: 245668

Description

The six Knives have shaped handles which are beautifully inlaid with silver and mother of pearl pique work, including ovals, roundels and stars. Each has a steel blade and are contained within a felt lined brass bound campaign box. This is the first time we have seen pique work on flatware. All are in excellent condition, a rare lot.

Length of knives, 8 inches, 20cm.

Length of the box: 9 inches, 22.5cm.