

HESTER BATEMAN. A fine George III Oval Stand made in London in 1784 by Hester Bateman.

Sold

REF: 374055

Description

This fine piece is oval in form and stands on four detailed claw and ball feet. The raised rim is decorated with applied beading and the centre is engraved with a contemporary Crest. This piece is in excellent condition, has a good colour and displays an exceptional set of marks on the reverse. This piece would be used as a bottle or sauceboats stand on the dining table.

Length: 6.5 inches, 16.25cm.

Width: 5.1 inches, 12.75cm