

A George III Serving Slice made in London in 1806 by Thomas Wallis II

Sold

REF: 120526

Description

The Slice has a navette shaped blade pierced with Greek key designs and a vacant circular laurel leaf cartouche. The top of the fiddle pattern handle is engraved with a contemporary Scottish Crest with the Motto above.

Length: 11.5 inches