

A pair of George III Sauce Ladles, Sumner & Crossley, London, 1777

Sold

REF: 120492

Description

The Ladles were made by William Sumner and Richard Crossley and have shell bowls and Old English Pattern stems, decorated with an outer bright cut border. The top of the stem also displays the contemporary initial N.

Length: 7 inches