A very fine pair of George III Stuffing/Serving Spoons made in London in 1778, maker's mark of J.S.

£1,200

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 374047

Description

These very elegant spoons have slender Old English pattern stems, with a crisp bright cut outer border. The top of each stem is engraved with a contemporary Crest. The Spoons are in excellent crisp condition, with good bowls and clear hallmarks. They are also of a very good gauge and weight.

Length: 11.25 inches, 28.13cm.
Weight: 8oz.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777