

A William IV Vinaigrette modelled as a Handbag. Made in Birmingham in 1833 by Gervase Wheeler.

Sold

REF: 163341

Description

The Vinaigrette is beautifully modelled as a handbag and is engraved all over with diamond motifs. The front also displays a vacant rectangular cartouche. The cover is engraved with stylised foliate motifs and the twisted ropework handle is attached to each side. The cover opens to reveal a slender grille pierced and engraved with foliate motifs and a central flower head.

Width: 1 inch, 2.5cm

Length: 1.5 inches, 3.75 cm