A rare George III Wine Label made in London in 1797 by Joseph Stewart.

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 374861

Description

The label has an unusual narrow rectangular form with rounded ends and a double thread edge. The label is engraved with the rare title of BERSAC, a misspelling of Barsac. The label displays exceptional niello filled lettering, is in excellent condition and is very well marked on the reverse.Length: 1.9 inches, 4.75 cm.Width: 0.65 inches, 1.63 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777