

A very rare early George III Wine Label made in London circa 1770 by James Hyde.

Sold

REF: 374812

Description

The label is modelled in a broad rectangular form with feather edge border and tri-furcated devices in each corner. The label is finely engraved with the rare title RED CAPE and is very well marked on the reverse.Length: 2 inches, 5cm.