

An unusual George III Wine Label made in London in 1795 by Henry Green.

Sold

REF: 373732

Description

The Wine Label is rectangular in form, with rounded ends and an unusual pierced outer border. The front is engraved for PORT and is decorated with prick dot bands. This example is in excellent condition and is very well marked on the reverse.

Length: 2 inches, 5cm.