HESTER BATEMAN. A rare George III Wine Label made in London circa 1786-90 by Hster Bateman.

Sold

REF: 374181

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

This rare wine label has a curved shape and is narrow rectangular in form, with a domed top, beautifully pierced with pluming scrolls. The outer border is decorated with a bright cut zig zag band and the banner is engraved for WHITE WINE. This piece is in excellent crisp condition and is a rare design from the Bateman workshops. The reverse displays a crisp set of marks, including a good maker's mark.

Length: 1.9 inches, 4.75 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777