

MARY COOKE ANTIQUES LTD

Fine Antique Silver

An extremely rare set of four Heraldic Knife Rests made in London in 1835 by The Barnards.

SOLD

REF:- 239005

Short Description

This is the first time we have offered a set of Georgian heraldic Knife Rests. Each end is cast in the form of a family Crest and is modelled as a Wheat Sheaf. The central section is beautifully shaped and each displays a good set of hallmarks. The rests are of the finest quality - very rare items.

Length: 3 inches, 7.5cm

Weight: 6 oz.

More Information

| | |
|------|------|
| Year | 1835 |
|------|------|