

MARY COOKE ANTIQUES LTD

Fine Antique Silver

A set of three George II Casters made in London in 1752 by Samuel Wood.

SOLD

REF:- 96817

Short Description

The Casters are baluster in form and stand on cast spreading feet. The pull off covers terminate in a cast bell finial and are pierced with scroll work and plain roundells, as well displaying trellis work engraving. The large caster would have been used for sugar and the two smaller ones for pepper. Each piece is engraved with a contemporary Crest. Samuel Wood was a specialist maker of casters.

Height of sugar caster: 6.5 inches

Height of Pepper caster: 5 inches

More Information

Year	1752
------	------