Fine Antique Silver

A very fine pair of George II Cast Candlesticks made in London in 1750/51 by James Gould.

SOLD

REF:- 362938

Short Description

The Candlesticks stand on a stepped shaped base decorated with reeding which rises to a circular sunken well. The defined baluster stems are decorated with reeding and the shaft and spool shaped sockets display horizontal girdles around them. The base is engraved with a contemporary Scottish Crest with the Motto Frappez Fort - Strike Hard . The Crest and Motto are those as used by Wodehouse family, later Earls of Kimberley. The Candlesticks are in exceptional condition, with crisp marks, and are of a very good weight.

James Gould was a specialist Candlestick maker of fine quality. His brother was apprentice to him and his masterpiece is recognised as the Knesworth Chandelier in the Fishmongers Company, made in 1752.

Height: 7.5 inches, 18.75cm.

Base Diameter: 5 inches, 12.5cm.

Weight: 36oz.
