

MARY COOKE ANTIQUES LTD

Fine Antique Silver

A rare pair of George III Salad Servers made in London in 1820 by William Eley & William Fearn

SOLD

REF:- 225602

Short Description

The servers are modelled in the rare Fiddle and Shell pattern and are double struck, the pattern being on the front and the reverse. Both pieces display crisp shells and are engraved, at the top of the stem, with a contemporary family Crest. The bowls of each are in excellent condition and both are very well marked.

THESE ITEMS ARE RESERVED

Length: 11.45 inches, 28.63cm.

Weight: 11oz the pair.

More Information

Year	1820
------	------